

1619-2019 Commemoration of First African Landing August 25, 2019

St. Cyprian's extends a heartfelt welcome to our special guests today. Among the visitors will be representatives from the Pan-African Ministries of Bread for the World.

Immediately following the 9:30 a.m. church service, a panel discussion will be held in commemoration of the 400 years since the arrival of Africans in English North America.

Please plan on attending this service. A special reception will be hosted by God's Helpers. For additional information, contact Olive Ezell. ~ Olive C. Ezell

PROGRAM OUTLINE

| | |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 9:30 a.m. – 11a.m. | Holy Eucharist, Rite II |
| 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. | Reception – Randall Hall |
| 12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. | Commemorative Panel Discussion |

PANELISTS AND TOPICS OF PRESENTATIONS

Remembering the First African Landing..... Olive C. Ezell
Project 1619

The Pan-African Ministries.....The Rev. Dr. Angelique Walker-Smith

Bread for the World.....Representative(s)

St. Cyprian’s History.....Stephanie Kendall
“From Tyler Street”

St. Cyprian’s Overall History.....Fannie Walls
“Permanent Preservation of Records”

Open Microphone Question and Answer Session

Closing Remarks.....The Very Rev. Ronald E. Ramsey

“BELL RINGING”

The Presiding Bishop Michael Curry and Bishop Magness are inviting Episcopal churches to take part in tolling their church bells for one minute in remembrance of the first enslaved Africans who landed in English North America.